Notice Regarding Change of Corporate Name

Ueda Yagi Securities Co., Ltd. (hereinafter, “the Company”) hereby announces that, having obtained approval for a partial amendment to its Articles of Incorporation at the Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held today, it has decided to change its corporate name as follows.

Details

1. New Corporate Name

Ueda Investments Co., Ltd.

2. Effective Date of Change

January 1, 2027

3. Background and Purpose of the Change

Since its establishment in 2007, the Company has provided specialized expertise and services in alternative investments through its securities business and discretionary investment management business under the name “Ueda Yagi Securities Co., Ltd.” In recent years, amid rapidly changing conditions in the financial markets, demand has grown for more sophisticated and specialized asset management services that go beyond the traditional scope of securities business.

As the Company approaches its 20th anniversary in April 2027, and building on its history to date, it will change its corporate name to “Ueda Investments Co., Ltd.” This change is intended to more clearly express the Company’s corporate philosophy of building long-term, collaborative relationships with clients regarding their investments, and to advance to a new stage of further growth.

The new corporate name reflects the Company’s philosophy of remaining a sincere investment partner — identifying investment opportunities and making investment decisions based on advanced expertise as an investment professional, while building long-term relationships of trust with clients and with the managers of the investment products and funds that we identify and select on their behalf.

Please note that this change of corporate name will not result in any changes to the Company’s business operations, contractual terms, or existing transactions. The Company remains committed to managing our clients’ valuable assets with sincerity and to providing high-quality services going forward.
